Public Attendance: No member of the public had indicated their wish to attend a zoom meeting

Apologies: None

Declarations of Interest: None

Minutes of Previous Meeting:

These were circulated as a true record of the meeting held on Wednesday 14th October 2020

Public Contribution: 49-1120 Mr Graham Elliot gave an update and explanation of the Community Benefit Society of The Locks Inn at Geldeston. He explained about the Community Share Issue on 1st December and asked for the PC support to lend in writing for the Plunkett Foundation . It was unanimously agreed by the PC to give said support

Matters Arising

50-1120 Church Farm / Neboair : A discussion was held concerning the apparent plans for a commercial airport operation. It was agreed to send a letter to Peter Aldous MP , East Suffolk Council and the Broads Authority outlining the PC concerns.

Planning Matters:

51-1120 DC/20/4015/FUL : residential yoga retreats. A letter was received from Kerry Wilmots referencing DC/17/4019/COU , a planning permission that has already been permitted . It appeared that the two planning references were confused as the letter received was concerning the change from a Yoga Park into a Yoga residential retreat , with two bedrooms and a dining area. The decision was made not to support the change.

Correspondence: All forwarded by e mail

Financial Matters: Financial report was logged

Payments to be approved:

52-1120 Wreaths to be paid for November 11th : Payment to Pat and Neville Smith was approved

A.O.B.
